Shoe Boutique Throws Second Private Screening

by Reggie Allen

Sneaker Phetish hosted a private screening of "A Wrinkle in Time" at the Cinemark Bridge Street on March 18.

Last week's event comes less than a month after the boutique hosted a screening of "Marvel's Black Panther," which recently grossed $1 billion at the box office. Like its predecessor, free tickets were made available to the public, but sold out within an hour. However, this event was marketed as a "women only" event.

When the shoe boutique decided to screen Marvel's newest behemoth, the intention was to not only give back to the community, but showcase empowering black roles. It only seemed natural to do the same for young women. Helmed by lauded director Ava Duvernay ("Selma," "13th"), "A Wrinkle in Time" features a predominantly female ensemble, which includes Oprah Winfrey, Reese Witherspoon and Mindy Kaling.

"Seeing a young girl and this stellar supporting cast of women is just as powerful to see on display as 'Black Panther' was," Sneaker Phetish co-owner David Daniels said on the business' official GoFundMe page.

Based off Madeleine L'Engle's critically acclaimed novel, "A Wrinkle in Time" stars newcomer Storm Reid as Meg Murry, a shy teenager mourning the disappearance of her scientist father. When three mystical women inform her that her father is still alive, she, brother Charles Wallace and friend Calvin embark on adventure through time and space to save him.

Despite being viewed as a literary staple, the book was initially rejected over 26 times as it was deemed too dark for children. Years later, the author also revealed that many publishers didn't take to kindly to having a female heroine or protagonist. Farrar, Straus & Giroux published the novel in January of 1962, which would ultimately culminate into the "Time Quintet", a five-part series that furthers the story of Murray and company. Released March 9, the star-studded fantasy dominated the box office opening weekend, raking in an estimated $33 million. Its only competition was "Black Panther," which currently reigns as the number one movie in America.

Duvernay's take on the timeless classic may be the most recent, but it wasn't the first. In 2003, ABC released a made-for-television adaption that starred Alfre Woodard, Katie Stuart and Alison Elliot. However, the low budget after school program was not only panned by critics, but greatly detested by L'Engle, who passed in 2007.

Women of Color Group Formed

More than a dozen women from diverse ethnic and cultural backgrounds have joined together in Huntsville, Alabama and formed an organization currently known as Women of Color (WOC).

The aim of WOC is to strengthen America's representative democracy and our local communities.

WOC will assert a representative voice on policy so that humanity in our communities can develop, thrive and soar. Humanity has two wings—one is women, the other men. Like the wings of a bird, both wings must be equally developed in order to fly. To ignore the voice of women, who comprise over one half of the current global population, is to allow one wing of humanity to not develop.

Humanity will not reach its highest potential without the influence of women being actively involved in all aspects of the development processes of our communities, state, nation and world. WOC includes all ethnicities and cultures. WOC is inclusive of all persons who agree with its mission. WOC does not discriminate. All are encouraged to join.

In commemoration of Women's History Month and to pay homage to the only female American military veteran Buffalo Soldier, Cathay Williams, the charter members of WOC will hold a press conference March 26 at 10 a.m. CST at the 10th Cavalry "Buffalo Soldier's" Memorial, to announce the mission and goals of the organization. The "Buffalo Soldier's" Memorial is located at 2800 Poplar Avenue.

For more information on the event, contact Regina Colston at regina.colston5@gmail.com 256-529-0226.

Spotlight on Our Elders ... Featuring

Dr. Eugene H. Scott, Jr.

Dr. Eugene H. Scott, Jr., served as a well-known and accomplished dentist in the Huntsville-Madison County community.

He received his undergraduate degree (Bachelor of Science) in geology in 1958 from Howard University. He pursued additional studies at American University in organic chemistry and physics, 1958-59; and Howard University, Doctor of Dental Surgery, 1963.

He completed his General Dentistry Residency in Oral Surgery at Bird S. Coler Memorial Hospital, 1964, and 5th Avenue/Columbia University Hospital in General Dentistry Residency in Oral Surgery, 1964. He held state licensure in New York, Washington, D.C., Maryland, Virginia and Alabama.

He is an active volunteer who has conducted free HIV/AIDS prevention workshops entitled "Lifestyle Revolution," focusing on changing behavior in the Black community for more than a decade. These workshops were conducted for local churches, community organizations, fraternities and Alabama A&M University. He took his HIV/AIDS prevention message to both YouTube and My Space social media sites.

As a humanitarian, Dr. Scott went beyond the call of duty to help others. He provided free dental services to local homeless citizens and international students at AAMU for more than two decades, and he conducted for more than 35 years free Stop Smoking Seminars in the local community.

In recognition of his many contributions in his profession and to society, he received scores of honors, awards, citations and plaques. His civic and professional affiliations are legion.

Dr. Scott married Eunice Betts Scott, and they are the proud parents of three children, Kenneth, Gena Lynn and Jody.

Champion Game Plan for Life

by Preston Brown

Psalms 65:3 says, When we were overwhelmed by sins, you forgave our transgressions.

You know, this whole business of sin has caused the deepest woes of the human race. Sin is the greatest threat to our lives. Just look at all the senseless acts of violence we see going on in the world today. As the psalmist confesses, we are not equal to the sin that's in the world. He says it's overwhelming. But you know what? This is the very reason that Jesus came. 1 John 2:2 says that He is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not only for ours but also the sins of the whole world, because God knew that we were no match for the sins of this world. Our sins are stronger than we are if we don't have the presence of Jesus in our lives. We may think that we can go at it alone, but we can't. Our sins are stronger than we are because they become "habitual". Many people play with sin as if they are in control, only to realize that sin always disguises itself as freedom to do what you want to do, but ends up in bondage.

You end up doing all the things that you never thought you would do. And, only Jesus can release us from the bondage of sin. We all need Jesus today, because we cannot defeat the sin that is in the world by ourselves. Because our sins are stronger than we are without the presence of Jesus in our lives ... Stay encouraged, my brothers and sisters.

*Ahhh, a Tribute!
Pioneer Annie Grace Robinson!*

In the 2012 book, "Alpha Kappa Alpha's Timeless Service in West Alabama: The Golden Legacy of Eta Xi Omega Chapter," author Irene Issac Byrd features local Pioneer, Dr. Annie Grace Robinson.

U.S. Representative John Lewis once said, "If not us, then who? If not now, then when?" Dr. Robinson and two other women accepted the challenge and were co-initiates chosen to comprise the very first intake group of Eta Xi Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., in 1962, in Tuscaloosa, Ala. She was one of three women scoped out by the members of the chapter when they were targeting prospective candidates.

Having grown up in Hale County, Dr. Robinson was a business education teacher at Riverside High School when she was initiated. When interviewed for a feature in the book by Byrd about her early experiences, Robinson indicated that she "became interested in Eta Xi Omega because she had met and was greatly impressed with the friendliness, helpfulness, and consistently high expectations from the ladies." She was the first AKA in her family, where her mother always instructed her to be the best she could be, never use the word "can't", and to never give up on her aspirations and achievements (pp. 59-63).

Robinson earned her bachelor's degree at Stillman College in Tuscaloosa, a Master of Arts degree from the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa and a Doctorate of Education degree from the University of Kansas in Lawrence, Kansas. She remained active with Eta Xi Omega until 1969, when she moved to Huntsville to accept a teaching job with Huntsville City Schools. After about a month with Huntsville City Schools, Dr. James Hicks went to see her at Stone Middle School to talk with her about a teaching position at Alabama A&M University. She spent a 33-year career in education at A&M and remains active as a civic volunteer and member of a number of local organizations, including Phillips Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, the Rosetta James Foundation founding and current Board Member, Epsilon Gamma Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Huntsville Chapter of AARP, Friends of the Library and Learning Quest. She served on the Board of Trustees of Miles College in Birmingham for many years. Earlier this year, she was appointed to the Board of Trustees of Texas College in Tyler, Tex.

Congratulations, Dr. Annie Grace Robinson, for your many contributions of service and excellence to the local community. Your contributions are timeless and always appreciated.

Until next week ...

Stillman Alumni Offer Scholarships to Area Students

The Huntsville Madison Tennessee Valley Alumni Chapter of Stillman College is pleased to offer three (3) college scholarships in the amount of $1,500 to deserving high school seniors and college students in the Huntsville, Ala., Metropolitan Area. Scholarships are offered to eligible high school students or returning college students who have been accepted for enrollment at Stillman College (Tuscaloosa, Ala.) in the upcoming semester.

The recipient of this scholarship will be selected based on the applicant's demonstrated academic achievement, community service involvement, verbal communication skills, resume and reference endorsements.

Eligibility

- Current high school senior or returning college student living in the Huntsville, Alabama Metropolitan Area
 - Anticipate completion of high school and receipt of diploma at the time of application
 - Have a minimum of 2.5 GPA at the time of application
 - Accepted to and enrolling full time to Stillman College Application Material
 - High School or college transcript
 - Two Letters of Recommendation (Letters from relatives will not be accepted)
 - Typed Resume (12 font) detailing education, work experience, achievements and community service
 - Essay (1 to 2 pages)
- Essay Subject: Do Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) matter in today's America?
- Background to Essay: HBCUs have historically played a crucial role in influencing the character of the black liberation struggles. The foundation was built on the principle that everyone deserves a quality education. Many HBCUs are "at risk" due to lack of funding and support. With Majority Institutions voicing and allocating funding in support of Minority education, do

Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) matter in today's America? Application is due by April 6, 2018

Although deadlines are established, applications are reviewed throughout the year and will be considered up to four weeks prior to the registration period.

How to apply: Please mail or e-mail all scholarship material to mguidry@mediacombb.net no later than deadline. Mail to: Stillman College Alumni Chapter, PO Box 1133, Madison, AL 35758. For more, contact Willie Harris, chapter president, at (256) 679-6313.

The Humble Hearers of Hallelujah

King David had an impressive resume. The Biblical record spoke of his wildlife warrior skills when he killed a bear and a lion. The Bible also speaks of his slingshot skills when he used it against that boasting giant we all know as Goliath.

Because he was fighting for the honor of God, God gave that stone vision and velocity and it found its way to the forehead of Goliath and brought all nine feet of him tumbling to the ground.

The most memorable memorial of David is that he was a man after God's own heart. David's song writing skills helped him to find expression for the ability of God to be a keeper, and he came to the conclusion that God deserved praise "at all times."

In that declaration, he declared that he would be a personal and perpetual participant expressing praise to God. Although he pledged to be alone in his praise if necessary, he knew of another group that would hear him testify of God's goodness and mercy and "be glad"; or in the vernacular of the church, say Amen.

David knew that he was not the only one that felt that way and so he wrote in his song the anticipated response of the humble hearers of hallelujah.

David knew that there will always be some perpetual praise participants who will join in when others rejoice in the goodness and God-ness of God.

My question to you: "Are you one?"
